

KOREAN WAR GALLERY

Find this picture of a Marine feeding a tiny kitten.

In what bunker was this picture taken?

VIETNAM WAR GALLERY

Look for this Marine war dog.

What did war dogs do to help Marines during the Vietnam War?

At the end of the Vietnam War Gallery, look for this eagle with outspread wings.

In what year did the Marine Corps first begin?

CONGRATULATIONS

You have completed the Devil Dogs
Gallery Hunt!

OOH - RAH!

Come back again and try one of the National Museum of the Marine Corps' other Gallery Hunts!

DEVIL DOGS

GALLERY HUNT

Explore the Museum and find the animals that are connected to the United States Marine Corps!

Enter the Making Marines Gallery
to begin....

MAKING MARINES GALLERY

Look for this ferocious cat high up on the wall.

For what purpose was this poster used?

DEFENDING THE NEW REPUBLIC GALLERY

Look for the Marines riding camels.
Where are these Marines?

Find these oxen.

What is going on in this scene?

Look for these running horses.

What battle does this painting show?

GLOBAL EXPEDITIONARY FORCE GALLERY

Find this metal eagle.

Where did ships like this take Marines after the Civil War?

Look for this painting with a frightened horse.

Who are these Marines fighting?

WORLD WAR I GALLERY

Find this poster outside the entrance to the World War I Gallery with two dogs on it.

What does the German nickname for U.S. Marines, "teufel hunden," mean?

WORLD WAR II GALLERY

Look for this picture of a boy and a cow.

What was happening to farms during this pre-WWII time?

Find this Marine Aviator's patch.

What is Bugs Bunny wearing on his head?

Look for this patch with a red snake in the Tarawa exhibit.

What number is this red snake making?

Find this patch with a golden seahorse.

Can you see the anchor shape? Why do you think it is there?

