

“Veterans” Third Annual Marine Corps Student Art Competition

The National Museum of the Marine Corps’ (NMMC) Third Annual Marine Corps Student Art Competition will open on May 18, 2021, to all U.S. students.

The theme for the NMMC’s art competition is “Veterans.” Student artists are asked to create 2D art which visually shows what “Veterans” means. Suggestions include but are not limited to: Marines and their families, Marines in U.S. history, being patriotic, brotherhood, and combat support.

SUBMISSION RULES AND REQUIREMENTS

Eligibility

Student artwork will be judged in five grade-based categories: K-6, 7-9, 10-12, and special needs grades K-6 and 7-12. The competition is open to private, public, and homeschool students.

Deadline

Artwork entries must be submitted via digital copy. Email entries starting on October 1 but no later than October 15, 2021. Only the first fifty submissions in each category will be accepted for consideration.

Rules

1. All entries must consist of original artwork created by the student.
2. Entries cannot infringe on any third-party intellectual property rights, nor contain any material that is defamatory, vulgar, or otherwise inappropriate.
3. Submit the artwork in digital form, preferably .jpg (minimum size 1.0 MB).
4. All entries must include a completed official entry form. Artwork with an incomplete or illegible entry form will be disqualified.
5. Acceptable media are limited to the following: acrylic, oil, watercolor, tempera paint, ink, charcoal, crayon, marker, graphite, colored pencil, pastel, chalk, and/or mixed media. Photographs and digitally created artwork will not be considered.
6. Schools that are submitting student artwork for participants are limited to three entries per category. A completed official entry form is required for each participant.
7. The digital copy will remain the property of the National Museum of the Marine Corps.

Judging of Student Artwork

1. Judging will be based on creativity, use of media, and relevance to the theme: “Veterans.”
2. Sixteen winners will be selected: First, Second, and Third Place in each category, and an overall Best of Show.
3. Museum professionals, local Virginia educators, and USMC combat artists will determine the three winners in each grade category, as well as the Best in Show, in a blind judging panel.
4. Winners will be announced on November 1, 2021. Participants do not need to be present to win.

Exhibition of Artwork

Reproductions (8x10, 16x20 or 24x36) of all winning artwork will be on display at the National Museum of the Marine Corps soon after November 1, 2021, and may be viewed when the museum is open to the public until May 1, 2022.
